

VARIANTS: There are five issues of this collection, varying in the imprint. Issue 1: lists Allot as publisher, and its imprint exists in four main states: STC 22274 reads "to be fold at his shop at the signe of the Blacke Beare" in "Pauls Church-yard"; STC 22274a reads "to be fold at the signe"; in STC 22274e.3, the original sheet "A2.5 was replaced by a cancel, which is printed on thicker paper and probably dates from 1641, after Thomas Cotes died; it corrects "fold" to "sold", lists the sign for Allot's shop as "the blacke Beare", and is otherwise the same as STC 22274; STC 22274e.5 also contains a cancel sheet "A2.5 similar to STC 22274e.3; it lists the sign for Allot's shop as "the blacke Beare" in "Pauls Church yard," and also contains variant states with either "according" or "accodrng." Issue 2: STC 22274b lists Aspley as publisher at the Parrot in Paul's Churchyard. Issue 3: STC 22274c lists Hawkins as publisher in Chancery Lane, near Sergeant's Inn; in its two states, the imprint reads either "shop in Chancery" or "shop Chancery." Issue 4: STC 22274d lists Meighen as publisher at the Middle Temple Gate in Fleet Street. Issue 5: STC 22274e lists Smethwick as publisher in St. Dunstan's Churchyard. See also STC 5089 5084 5086 5083 5085 5087 5088